

An Australian Christmas Song

Lyrics By

Hazel Hughes

1. Here in Australia it's Christmas again
Tell forth the message o'er hilltop and plain,
Sheep in the paddocks, and sun ripened wheat
Join in the chorus this season to greet.

2. In this fair land, we tell of his birth,
Each little town shall join in the mirth,
Summer is harvest time, Christmas is here,
Let us all worship our saviour so dear.

3. In little churches the faithful ones meet,
Travelling far in the Summertime heat,
Native birds calling in gum trees so tall,
Come now and worship the Babe in the stall.

4. In this fair land, we tell of his birth,
Each little town shall join in the mirth,
Summer is harvest time, Christmas is here,
Let us all worship our saviour so dear.

5. Here Neath the Southern Cross, we shall rejoice,
In this brown land we shall sing with one voice,
Christmas and harvest time blending to one,
Telling the story of God's only son.
